

I believe the bank's petition should be ignored. I put my name on the "no call" list because I didn't want to be called. If I need to talk to the bank, I can call them.